Dear General Scowcroft:

Thank you for your participation on 3 December in the second running of our Executive Seminar on "Intelligence and National Security Policy: the Nixon Administration." As with your presentation at the first running of the Seminar, your willingness to share your thoughts on how well the Agency served the policymakers while you were in the White House was greatly appreciated by the Seminar participants.

We appreciate your diverting the time and effort from your busy schedule to help us in this Seminar.

Sincerely,
